

Wisconsin's no call law for telemarketers has been a blessing to my company and my home. The law needs to remain unchanged from its current state or even more strict if possible. If I want to buy a service from someone, I know where to go to get it, as do most of the other people out there being bombarded with phone calls. Please help us retain our privacy by not allowing telemarketing back into our state.